Frequently asked questions

Q. What is Friends of TRAC?

Ans: It is a scheme set up for supporters who will share the vision and want to help in a number of practical ways.

Q. Can you give me some examples of how a Friend of TRAC might help?

Ans:

- 1) Promote the support and use of TRAC (Yates Farm) to family, friends, acquaintances, churches, schools and other groups and organisations.
- 2) Organise local fundraising event.s
- 3) When possible help to organise and /or help run events at Yates Farm.
- 4) Be a local contact for TRAC inquiries.
- 5) By becoming a regular giver (£5 per month minimum) by standing order. This money will be used for building works.
- 6) Assist whenever possible at Yates Farm with building and development work.
- 7) By setting up local prayer and supporter groups.

Q. Do Friends of TRAC pay any subscription, if yes what does that subscription cover?

Ans: There is an annual subscription of £10 per family. We will send you the Friends of TRAC newsletter, the TRAC prayer letter and free attendance for all the family at the annual Friends of TRAC Fun Day which is held at Yates Farm.

Q. Is membership of Friends of TRAC only available to Christians?
Ans: No, and we are sure everyone will enjoy the Christian environment that TRAC offers.

Q. How do I become a Friend of TRAC?

Ans: By completing the response slip and sending it to the address on the front cover. For more information, phone 08453 380350.
